Describe nature of application or appeal

(see Section 716 Appeals and Interested Person Requirements below)

SECTION 716 APPEALS

In accordance with 24 V.S.A. § 4465, an interested person (from the Planning and Development Act (Title 24 V.S.A. Chapter 117), Section 4465(b), as amended through 2012) may appeal any decision or act taken by the Administrative Officer by filing a notice of appeal, pursuant to 24 V.S.A. § 4466, with the Development Review Board.

A notice of appeal shall be in writing and shall include the name and address of the appellant, a brief description of the property with respect to which the appeal is taken, a reference to the regulatory provisions applicable to that appeal, the relief requested by the appellant, and the alleged grounds why the requested relief is believed proper under the circumstances.

INTERESTED PERSON

An interested person (from the Planning and Development Act (Title 24 V.S.A. Chapter 117), Section 4465(b), as amended through 2012) may appeal a decision of the Board to the Vermont Environmental Court as provided by 24 V.S.A. § 4471.

INTERESTED PERSON: [from the Planning and Development Act (Title 24 V.S.A. Chapter 117), Section 4465(b), as amended through 2012]

Any one of the following:

1. A person owning title to property, or a municipality or solid waste management district empowered to condemn it or an interest in it, affected by a bylaw, who alleges that the bylaw imposes on the property unreasonable or inappropriate restrictions of present or potential use under the particular circumstances of the case.
2. The municipality that has a plan or a bylaw at issue in an appeal brought under this chapter or any municipality that adjoins that municipality.
3. A person owning or occupying property in the immediate neighborhood of a property that is the subject of any decision or act taken under this chapter, who can demonstrate a physical or environmental impact on the person's interest under the criteria reviewed, and who alleges that the decision or act, if confirmed, will not be in accord with the policies, purposes, or terms of the plan or bylaw of that municipality.
4. Any ten persons who may be any combination of voters or real property owners within a municipality listed in subdivision (2) of this subsection who, by signed petition to the appropriate municipal panel of a municipality, the plan or a bylaw of which is at issue in any appeal brought under this title, allege that any relief requested by a person under this title, if granted, will not be in accord with the policies, purposes, or terms of the plan or bylaw of that municipality. This petition to the appropriate municipal panel must designate one person to serve as the representative of the petitioners regarding all matters related to the appeal.
5. Any department and administrative subdivision of this state owning property or any interest in property within a municipality listed in subdivision (2) of this subsection, and the agency of commerce and community development of this state.
