

Dummerston Conservation Commission Agenda 6-14-2018

Issues from community members

Minutes, Financial review

Reports on Planting for Pollinators with Tom Sullivan, co-sponsored with BEEC;
Wildflowers with John Anderson, Ferns with Lynn, fall programs

Planning summer and fall programs--Kelly price on Monarchs, state archaeologist, question and answer sessions

Tiny grant update

On-going volunteer initiatives-Prospect invasives removal day--June 29

Check 2017-18 Conservation Commission Plan to make sure we are doing what we had planned and make any adjustments

On-going Initiatives

Ridgeline Overlay

Coordination with other agencies and organizations

Coordination with select board and other town committees

Land Conservation Project

Invasives Removal

First detector Program (Emerald Ash Borer, Hemlock Woolly Adelgid, Asian Longhorn Beetle)

Stewardship- Prospect Mountain, Black Mountain, Dutton Pines, Rain Garden, West River Trail report

Inventorying and Biodiversity Update

Rare and endangered Plants protection

Wildlife Connectivity-Managing our town for wildlife

Water, waterways/culverts

Website

E-mail outreach

Views articles

Land Conservation Discussion:

1. June 10 at Next Stage--"Before It's Too Late: Conserving New England's Forests and Farmlands"
2. Article in Northern Woodlands Summer 2018, "How Did the Moose Cross the Road? Reconnecting a Broken Landscape"

Sightings